

The Office of Academic Accessibility (OAA)

Greensboro College is committed to providing equal access to programming for otherwise qualified students with a disability.

We provide reasonable testing, housing, dietary, and classroom accommodations through a simple process.

Accommodations:

We craft reasonable accommodations for each individual's specific needs

Possible accommodations may include classroom, testing, housing, and dietary needs.

Campus Supports:

Greensboro College offers a variety of assistive technology and campus supports.

- Dragon Software
- Kurzweil Software
- Global Communication Center
- Writing Tutoring
- Smart Pens
- PEAK Tutoring
- Professor Office Hours
- Counseling Services

Learn more about our process and specific
accommodations:

Section 504 protects the rights of individuals with disabilities in programs and activities that receive Federal financing assistance, including federal funds. Section 504 provides that "No otherwise qualified individual with a disability in the United States...shall, solely by reason of her or his disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity based on Federal financial assistance.

Georgieann Bogdan

Director of Academic Accessibility
Office: Main Building Rm 323
georgieannbogdan@greensboro.edu

